

Medical Chaperones

A medical chaperone is available when your doctor or PA conducts a sensitive exam. A chaperone is trained to know what to expect during an exam and is there to ensure patient and provider safety. A chaperone is offered for your comfort, but you may choose to decline to have a chaperone present. Please speak with your health care provider if you have questions about a sensitive exam or the use of a medical chaperone.

Scan the QR code to access the Oregon Medical Board's patient education brochure "What to Expect During a Physical Exam."

For more information, visit omb.oregon.gov/chaperone.

Contact the OMB: info@omb.oregon.gov | 971-673-2700